License Requirements

CHAPTER 77.65.110 RCW - Alternate operator designation. This section applies to all commercial fishery licenses, delivery licenses, and charter licenses, except for whiting--Puget Sound fishery licenses and emergency salmon delivery licenses.

(1) The license holder may engage in the activity authorized by a license subject to this section. The holder of a license subject to this section may also designate up to two alternate operators for the license. A person designated as an alternate operator must possess an alternate operator license issued under 77.65.130.

(2) The fee to change the alternate operator designation on a fishing license is twenty two dollars.

Alternate Operator Instructions

- 1) Alternate Operator must complete application.
- 2) Signature is required of alternate operator or the owner of the fishery license to which the alternate is designated.
- 3) Required fee is $35.00.

An alternate operator license alone, does not allow an individual to operate a vessel and/or sell catch to a licensed wholesale dealer. Only those operators shown on the plastic fishery license card may operate the designated vessel in that fishery
